Commercial playground equipment takes a lot of abuse every day. These pieces are not like backyard swing sets that maybe get used for a few hours per week. These swings are often used from morning until night, supporting various weights and dealing with harsh weather conditions. Sometimes all you need is the right hardware to keep your swings working their best. This Standard Pendulum Replacement by Child Works is made to last and priced affordable enough to use on all of your swings. It is the ideal solution to your pendulum swing hanger problems. It will get old equipment up and running again like new. These replacement parts are lightweight, easy to install, durable and reliable; everything that you want in hardware used for commercial use.
