The Skippy Squirrel Tree Fortress Play System is a wonderful place to get lost on. This massive unit has numerous cavities and activities that will entertain kids for hours. This play system is outfitted with treehouse-themed panels that will turn kids into a colony of squirrels. These eager "rodents" will not get bored with the six different slides to choose from, with more activities than they can count and three levels of play. Three Bone Bridges connect the entire system into a fluid unit that filters children through from bottom to top, which is a necessity when this unit can hold up to 84 playing children at one time. The Skippy Squirrel Tree Fortress Play System is an imagination haven for creative children. Many plastic animal toppers greet children with their playful disposition; enticing them to come explore this unique and awe-inspiring playground system.
