It is exciting when you can buy something that actually invokes creative play, especially in today's world that is so full of electronic toys. My Mail Bag is a key component for any child pretending to be a mail delivery person. It measures 11 inches x 12 inches and weighs only 2 pounds, so it is not something that will put weight on the shoulder or pressure on the spine like a real mail delivery bag does! You can also have peace-of-mind knowing that the shoulder strap is created with a breakaway design for safety purposes. This bag is made from coated nylon, so not only is it durable, it is easy to clean off dirt or sticky finger prints. It even comes with 22 pre-printed plastic envelopes to carry inside! Children will love the imagination that is jump started with the My Mail Bag as they deliver letters to their friends.
